Prayer Breakfast at St John Vianney Parish in Kamloops on Saturday September 25 with Mass at 9am sponsored by the Knights of Columbus council 9508. Pat and Vicky Conroy are in their 22nd year as Lay Evangelist Missionaries. Originally commissioned by the Fathers of St Charles (Scalabrini's) they have served with various Religious Orders in many Diocese in Canada, USA, Mexico and Central America facilitating retreats, seminars, and Bible studies as well as prison and street outreach and as conference speakers. With the support of the Oblates of Mary Immaculate, they founded Agape Street Ministry fourteen years ago in downtown Eastside Vancouver and Surrey. Most recently they were instrumental in founding Emmaus House for Young Offenders leaving prison in Belize, Central America. Their mandate from Jesus is "Ask nothing, refuse nothing, and hang onto nothing." God has revealed to them through His calling in Matthew 6, that He is Who He says He is and that He does keep His promises! Their sharing will attest to the Love and Work of the Master in their lives.

The seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"The disciples watch Jesus pray and, once he finishes, they beg him, "Lord, teach us to pray." Do they not know how to pray? Of course they do... but they want to pray the way that Jesus prays... they want to experience the union and confidence that Jesus experiences when he prays. That is why they must have rejoiced – after they got over their shock – when Jesus instructed them, "When you pray, say: Father." For when we belong to God as his children — because we have been "buried with Christ in baptism" — we possess the audacity, like Abraham, to pray for what seems outrageous or impossible. In begging the Lord to teach them to pray, the disciples beg to live their lives with the certainty, passion, and conviction of Jesus Christ."

— Magnificat, Vol 12, No. 5, July 2010, Pp. 343.

MATTERS OF PRAYERFUL CONCERN

That the Church, which daily prays for the coming of God's kingdom, may work tirelessly for that kingdom's justice and peace, we pray to the Lord: Lord, hear our prayer.

That the United Nations and other international agencies may lend their resources to the mediation of conflict and the preservation of peace, we pray to the Lord: Lord, hear our prayer.

That those who suffer economic oppression, or any kind of persecution, may receive justice promptly, we pray to the Lord: Lord, hear our prayer.

That travelers and vacationers may be kept safe both in body and spirit, and that their leisure activities may bring them closer to the Lord, we pray to the Lord; Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for the sick and homebound of our community. For the intentions listed in the Parish Bulletin and for those intentions we continually carry in our hearts, for these intentions, we pray to the Lord; Lord, hear our prayer.

For greater respect and appreciation of human life from conception to natural death: that all may recognize God's gift in each human life and nurture that life each day, we pray to the Lord: Lord, hear our prayer.

That all who have died may have eternal rest and peace – especially Gino Bison whose anniversary took place yesterday, and Canadian soldier, Sapper Brian Collier, who was killed in southern Afghanistan on Tuesday, for all those whom we remember: and for those who mourn their passing. We pray to the Lord: Lord, hear our prayer

That in every nation of the world the election of officials may be carried out with justice, transparency and honesty, respecting the free decisions of citizens, we pray to the Lord; Lord, hear our prayer.

That Christians may strive to offer everywhere, but especially in great urban centers, an effective contribution to the promotion of education, justice, solidarity and peace, we pray to the Lord; Lord, hear our prayer.

The Diocesan prayer for vocations: O God, you have chosen the apostles to make disciples of all nations, and by baptism and confirmation have called all of us to build up your Holy Church. We earnestly implore you to choose from among us, your children, many priests, brothers and sisters who will love you with their whole hearts and will gladly spend their entire lives to make you known and loved by all. Amen.
